The only problem is that you have never flown before, so you must learn the basics of flying and developing into a great pilot. Take off with a simple plane, which you can control with the keyboard. Combine different objects, so that you can carry out various actions: as well as the flying, you can also press the switches on the sides of the plane. If you manage to avoid all the obstacles, you will get to the next level. Up to the tenth level! For every level, the obstacles and visual effects change.
